3. Connect the attached USB cable to the USB port on your computer.

Verifying Hard Drive Installation

Upon the USB connection, the system should automatically detect your hard drive. To verify if your new hard disk is detected:

Under Windows: To verify your installation, select Control Panel > System > (Hardware) > Device Manager. The device USB Mass Storage Device should be displayed under the Universal Serial Bus Controllers group, and your hard disk should be displayed under the Disk drives group.

* The screenshot is an example from Windows® XP. Actual disk drive string varies according to your hard disk brand and model.

An USB device monitor icon will appear on the notification area of the taskbar.

Using the Attached HDD

Now you are ready to use the attached hard drive as external USB 3.0 storage device. (A brand new hard drive must be partitioned and formatted first. You can use Windows Disk Management utility in Windows® XP or other disk management software to perform disk-related tasks. Please refer to your software documentation for instructions.

Under Windows, the external hard drive(s) should be displayed in My Computer. An USB device monitor icon will appear on the notification area of the taskbar.

Safely Unplug the SATA HDD

The enclosure supports USB hot-pluggable feature. To remove the device safely, use the unplug/eject hardware icon in the system tray.

Under Windows

1. In the notification area, right-click the unplug/eject icon and select Unplug or eject hardware or Safely Remove Hardware.
2. Select the device you want to unplug, then click Stop and OK.
3. When Windows notifies you that it is safe to do so, click OK and unplug the enclosure from your computer.
